

Prior to the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law being at home at any time, especially in the evening, was unbearable. I frankly do not care about the telemarketers. If I did not contact them I do not want to hear from them and I do not care about what transpired in the past. Your office could also add some annoying charities to the list. If you pull back the New Jersey law a lot of telemarketers will hear some harsh language and a loud click. I wonder if we are being targeted because we are a so-called blue state. I have a right to peace and privacy in my home and without the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law the right will be violated repeatedly. Everyone can be hounded because a small percentage are not smart enough to refuse. I support and applaud Gov. Codey's efforts.
